

Hayling Island Beach Wardens Project

The BTCV Hayling Island Beach Wardens Project is a 2 year project providing a host of opportunities to protect, enhance and learn about the special wildlife of the Hayling coast.

- Volunteer for practical conservation projects at Sinah Common and nearby sites
- Learn with free training events on coastal wildlife
- Enjoy the coast with guided walks and activities

For more information contact Katy Roberts on 02380 769719, 07740 899709, or email hibw@btcv.org.uk

Practical task & survey programme Spring-Summer 2011:

Please contact us in advance to register for these events

Date & Time	Event	Meeting point
Thurs March 3 rd 10.30am-3pm	Practical Task: am: Path/fire break clearance pm: Beach clean & litter survey	Inn on the Beach
Thurs March 24th 12noon-5pm	Habitat management on the islands of Langstone Harbour	Broadmarsh Slipway Advance booking essential: limited places
Thurs April 7th 12noon-5pm	Habitat management on the islands of Langstone Harbour	Broadmarsh Slipway Advance booking essential: limited places
Thurs May 5th 10.30am-3pm	Habitat management at Sinah Common	TBC—Contact us for further details
Thurs June 2nd 10.30am-3pm	Habitat management at Sinah Common	TBC—Contact us for further details
Sunday 31st July 4.30pm-7pm approx	Shoresearch inter-tidal survey	TBC—Contact us for further details
Saturday September 17th 10.30am-12.30pm	BeachWatch Beach clean and litter Survey	Inn on the Beach in partnership with

Supported by The National Lottery[®]
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

INSPIRING PEOPLE, IMPROVING PLACES www.btcv.org.